Mr. Leoni recently provided the entertainment for our Annual Year-End Company Dinner Party. Each year we bring in entertainment. Over the past nine years, we have had different musical and playmaker groups provide entertainment.

While the entertainment every year has been enjoyable, Mr. Leoni set a new standard. The most frequent statement repeated all night was, "Wow! How does he do that?"

Our company is mostly comprised of highly skilled analytical, research and medical people. Throughout the evening they continually tried to analyze how Mr. Leoni performed his "magic". The next morning the topic of conversation in the break room still centered on the entertainment the night before.

Mr. Leoni's style, demeanor and wonderful skill, coupled with his personal approach of tableside performing, is delightful. If you are looking for an enjoyable evening of fun and lively entertainment, I highly recommend Mr. Leoni.

Sincerely,

Mary E. DePuew Kamm, M.S.
